 - 2.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of rules 2.1 and 2.2 a Veterinary Nurse shall perform the services referred to in these rules only during the course of his or her employment—
 - 2.3.1. by a person registered to practise a veterinary profession; or
 - 2.3.2. by a person employing a person registered to practise a Veterinary profession.
 - 2.4. In a case of emergency a veterinary nurse may also render other services which fall within his or her scope of training and experience and which are essential to save lives or relieve suffering in animals, on condition that a report thereon is made to the person referred to in rule 2.3 as soon as possible and the further treatment of such animal is entrusted to him or her or another person registered to practise a veterinary profession.
 - 2.5. Rule 2 must not be construed in a manner so as to prohibit any other person registered to practise a Veterinary or Para-veterinary profession from performing procedures that pertain to their profession.
- 3. Course of conduct for veterinary nurses.—
- 3.1. A person who practises the Para-Veterinary profession of Veterinary Nurse shall base his or her personal and professional conduct thereon that he or she is a member of a learned and honourable profession and is required to act at all times in such a manner as will maintain and promote the prestige, honour, dignity and interests of the profession and of the persons by whom it is practised.
 - 3.2. The fundamental responsibilities of veterinary nurses are to save lives, to relieve suffering and to promote health.
 - 3.3. A veterinary nurse shall keep himself or herself abreast of the ethical rules and the laws which affect him or her in the practising of his or her profession and shall, as far as it lies within his or her power, assist in the application of those rules and laws.
 - 3.4. A veterinary nurse must at all times maintain the highest standard of nursing care and professional conduct.
 - 3.5. A veterinary nurse shall regard any information acquired during the course of his or her employment as confidential and shall refrain from divulging such information to any person except his or her employer.
 - 3.6. A veterinary nurse is bound to execute the instructions of a person practising a veterinary profession discerningly and faithfully and shall refuse to take part in any unethical behaviour.
 - 3.7. A veterinary nurse shall refrain from expressing any criticism in public through which the reputation, status or practice of a colleague in the profession is or could be undermined or injured, or through which a reflection is or could be cast on the probity, skill, methods or conduct of such a colleague.
 - 3.8. Subject to the provisions of Part III of the Rules Relating to the practising of Veterinary Professions published by government Notice No. R. 2086 of 1 October 1982, as amended a veterinary nurse in private practice shall under no circumstances—
 - 3.8.1. advertise the practice or products of his or her employer; and
 - 3.8.2. appear in advertisements as a veterinary nurse unless it is an advertisement of the employer referred to in 2.3 above which complies with the Rules relating to the practising
- 4. Dress code.—
- 4.1. A veterinary nurse shall adhere to a dress code that upholds the image of the veterinary nursing profession.
 - 4.2. A veterinary nurse shall wear a professional identification device at all times whilst rendering a service that pertains to the profession of a veterinary nurse.
